ALL SORTS.

The Caledonia picnic will be attended by a large crowd. It is the first picnic of the season.

It is probable that Charley Thompson will be appointed to the vacant position in the Mint.

Since the discovery of Pine Nut mines many humble citizens have been promoted to colonels and majors.

Abe Cohn and his mining partners have made a contract with Bill Pickler to sink a shaft 100 feet deep on their claim at Pine Nut.

Miss Grace Cowan, of Carson, who is visiting Miss Gladie Ash, of Virginia City, was given a welcome party in the late city Thursday night.

The wealthy gentleman Gordon of the Cherokee strip is trying to prove himself a half breed in order that he may remain in the strip.

Alley, Cagwin, Galbreath, Little, Parkinson, Heritge, Maycraft, Saffell, Thaxter and Wilcox will shoot in the Carson Guard team at the picnic to-day.

The owner of the trotting stallion Nelson (record 2:10 1/4) says he was offered over $100,000 for the animal at Detroit week before last. The horse is not for sale.

During 1896 Nevada produced 26,420 pounds of copper. These figures include the quantities of copper forming an identical constituent of other ores.

If the reports from Pinenut continue to be encouraging, there will be a big town in that section before long. Bill Blackmore took another lead out there yesterday.

The White Pine News has information that ex Governor Adams is paying up all the steers he can get, paying from $20 to $22 per head, which is quite an advance over the prices of some years past.

It is stated now that nearly all of the sixty-five men who were on the Itata when she was brought back to San Diego are political refugees from Chili, who were glad for a chance to leave Iquique. About one third have left the ship.

The Caledonian picnic takes place at T. railway's Park today (Saturday) under the auspices of the Caledonian Club of Virginia City. Lovers of many out-door games should embrace this opportunity to see them. Admission to grounds 50 cents.

A report comes from Washington that the President is evincing a disposition to make overtures to the silver men, and it is stated that assurances have been given that if a free coinage bill passes Congress as Westerners claim, it will not be vetoed.

A miner named Michael F. Boyle fell down a mining shaft in Virginia Thursday. He struck on a pump bob, and was found there by his friends with 400 feet of space between him and the bottom of the shaft. He had a narrow escape from instant death.

There is an item going the rounds telling of the death of the oldest printer on the Pacific coast. This is a mistake, we are sure, as the oldest printer we know of is Jim Townsend of the Lundy Index, who is alive and kicking. Good ladies claim that Jim is 104 years of age.

Another spell of hot weather is at hand, and in order to keep cool go to E. B. Rail's and get a fine ice cream freezer; also one of his beautiful refrigerators. Don't forget to examine his fine line of goods which he is selling at very reduced rates. Don't forget the Heath & Mulligan paints. He keeps a fine stock.

When the Mariposa was leaving San Francisco the other day, with John L. Sullivan and his jag aboard, the ex champion of champions remarked, "I'll be captain of this ship in about two days." "We will talk about that tomorrow, Mr. Sullivan," remarked the captain, with a cold gleam in his eye. When the steamer was out at sea Sullivan tried to be captain and run the ship, but the crew jumped him and he was locked up in a cabin for two days.

"Whoa, There! Whoa!"

The Reno Gazette of Thursday has a long article on overland stage drivers. It has this to say of Billy Blackmore, the driver of the Pinenut stage:

"Billy Blackmore was noted for his devotion to duty; his foot was always on the brake, with stock always in hand and whip ready to touch a leader. Billy was so attentive while on duty that his nightmares were a repetition of his run, and when asleep his dreams were always of the dangerous places on the down grade. At such times he would pull himself up by the blankets and press the foot board off the bed, muttering 'Whoa, there! whoa!' believing all the time he was bearing down on the brake. He was a terror to the landlords, who finally adopted the plan of building bedsteads that he couldn't kick down."

Races at Steamboat.

The Nevada Jockey Club, having thoroughly organized under the direction of John F. Murphy, President, John Delehanty, Sec., will give a regular series of races every Sunday hereafter until the close of the season.

The principal race on Sunday next, August 9th will be a half mile dash, for a purse of $500. The following entries have already been made, viz: Wm. Thompson enters Joe, Mr. Tepper enters Charges, Lou Winters enters Aleazar. Other entries will also be made.

Beside this, the Base Ball game will be played, and all can feel assured of a good day's sport under the direction of the popular proprietor of Steamboat Springs. Special rates over the V. & T. R. R. from all points.

McEwen Shot At.

Arthur McEwen, the well-known newspaper writer, had a very narrow escape a few days ago from being killed. Frank J. Moffitt, the editor of the Oakland Times, fired a shot at McEwen and tried to send his soul into eternity. It appears that McEwen tried to collect pay from Moffitt for certain articles that he had written for the Times. Moffitt refused to settle and a quarrel ensued. A pistol was drawn by Moffitt and pointed at McEwen. The latter threw up his hands and told the former it would not be fair to the insurance companies for him to shoot. Moffitt fired, the ball passing through McEwen's coat sleeve. After further discussion Moffitt paid McEwen his bill.

Shooting Affray.

Thursday night there was a shooting affray in the Italian hotel opposite the freight depot. An Italian fired five shots at one of his countrymen. The party shot at was arrested and held as a witness. The shooter, who it is reported has killed several men, escaped. The Italians are afraid to inform on him, fearing that he will kill some of them if they do.

From Pinenut.

W. A. Gilmore and W. J. Sheridan arrived from Pinenut last evening. Mr. Sheridan says: "Our trip was a flying one. I spent several hours in camp, but I look upon it as a district with great possibilities, but as yet problematical—much money and muscle can only solve."

Try the great "Cephaline" for headache. Immediate relief. City Drug Store. j16

The Sacramento News has the following: "A number of Carson printers have gone to Lake Tahoe, and have taken a three compartment galvanized boat. If they had been Nevada editors, they would have taken three compartments." Drury has been a Nevada editor long enough to know what he is talking about.
